

INTRODUCTION

Why be ordinary, when you can be Extraordinary?

Do you remember your childhood dreams and wonder what happened?

Do people say you've achieved so much, but they can't hear the nagging inside your head?

Do you know deep in your bones you were meant for more, but what?

An Extraordinary life starts here and our next speaker is on your team

Samantha Leith has been described as the imaginary love child of Bette Midler and Tony Robbins. With 4 decades of on-stage experience, and over a decade of helping individuals and business to create their own version of Extraordinary.

Samantha is here:

- To believe in you while you build the Confidence to go after your biggest goals.
- To hold space for you while you gain the Clarity to decide what you really want.
- To guide you as you strengthen your Courage to face anything life throws at you.
- To cheer you on as you share your Charisma with the world.

Sit back, get ready to think bigger, change your attitude and focus on your version of success. She's asked us to warn you, that yes, there may be laughing, crying, thinking and so much more involved.

Please help me welcome to the stage the Extraordinary Samantha Leith.
